Meet four charming beauticians whose treatments pamper the soul and scrub the surface of life to reveal deep desires, private fears and secret fantasies in this comedy series set in a beauty parlor in Paris.

As laughter, tears, and raw emotion mingle with the scent of hot wax and facial cream inside the pink walls of the Venus Beauty Salon, life carries on outside – until the moment when no amount of cosmetics can keep our rosy heroines cleansed from a hidden past of bitterness, resentment and even...murder?
